In accordance with the Anti-Bullying Procedures for Primary and Post Primary Schools bullying is defined as follows:

6.8.9. Procedures for Investigating and Dealing with Bullying

The primary aim in investigating and dealing with bullying is to resolve any issues and to restore, as far as is practicable, the relationships of the parties involved (rather than to apportion blame)

The schools procedures are consistent with the approach outlined in section 6.8 of the D.E.S. Anti-Bullying Procedures (2013).

Every effort will be made to ensure that all involved (including pupils, parent(s)/guardian(s) understand this approach from the outset.

Reporting bullying behaviour

- Any pupil or parent(s)/guardian(s) may bring a bullying incident to any teacher in the school
- All reports, including anonymous reports of bullying, will be investigated and dealt with by the relevant teacher
- Teaching and non-teaching staff such as secretaries, special needs assistants (SNA's), care takers, cleaners, must report any incidents of bullying behaviour witnessed by them, or mentioned to them, to the relevant teacher

Investigating and dealing with incidents

Style of approach (see section 6.8.9 D.E.S. Anti-Bullying Procedures)

- In investigating and dealing with bullying, the (relevant) teacher will exercise his/her professional judgement to determine whether bullying has occurred and how best the situation might be resolved
- Parent(s)/guardian(s) and pupils are required to co-operate with any investigation and assist the school in resolving any issues and restoring, as far as is practicable, the relationships of the parties involved as quickly as possible
- Teachers should take a calm, unemotional problem-solving approach
- Where possible incidents should be investigated outside the classroom situation to ensure the privacy of all involved
- All interviews should be conducted with sensitivity and with due regard to the rights of all pupils concerned. Pupils who are not directly involved can also provide very useful information in this way
- When analysing incidents of bullying behaviour, the relevant teacher should seek answers to questions of what, where, who and why. This should be done in a calm manner, setting an example in dealing with a conflict in a non-aggressive manner
- If a group is involved, each member should be interviewed individually at first. Thereafter all those involved should be met as a group. At the group meeting each member should be asked for his/her account of what happened to ensure that everyone in the group is clear about each other's statements
- Each member of a group should be supported through the possible pressures that may face them from other members of the group after the interview by the teacher. It may also be appropriate or helpful to ask those involved to write down their account of the incident(s)
- In cases where it has been determined by the relevant teacher that bullying behaviour has occurred the parent(s)/guardian(s) of the parties involved should be contacted at an early stage to inform them of the matter and explain the actions being taken (by reference to the school policy). The school should give the parent(s)/guardian(s) an opportunity of discussing ways in which they can reinforce or support the actions taken by the school and the supports provided to the pupils
- Where the relevant teacher has determined that a pupil has been engaged in bullying behaviour it should be made clear to him/her how he/she is in breach of the schools anti-bullying policy and efforts should be made to try to get him/her to see the situation from the perspective of the pupil being bullied.
- It must also be made clear to all involved (each set of pupils and parent(s)/guardian(s) that in any situation where disciplinary sanctions are required, that this is a private matter between the pupil being disciplined, his or her parent(s)/guardian(s) and the school

Follow-up and recording

- In determining whether a bullying case has been adequately and appropriately addressed the relevant teacher must, as part of his/her professional judgement, take the following factors into account
  - Whether the bullying behaviour has ceased
  - Whether any issues between the parties have been resolved as far as is practicable
  - Whether relationships between the parties have been restored as far as is practicable
  - Any feedback received from the parties involved, their parent(s)/guardian(s) or the school Principal or Deputy Principal
- Follow-up meetings with the relevant parties involved should be arranged separately with a view to possibly bringing them together at a later date if the pupil who has been bullied is ready and agreeable
- Where a parent(s)/guardian(s) is not satisfied that the school has dealt with a bullying case in accordance with these procedures, the parent(s)/guardian(s) must be referred, as appropriate, to the schools complaints procedures
- In the event that a parent(s)/guardian(s) has exhausted the schools complaints procedures and is still not satisfied, the school must advise the parent(s)/guardian(s) of their right to make a complaint to the Ombudsman for Children

Recording of bullying behaviour

It is imperative that all recording of bullying incidents must be done in an objective and factual manner

The schools procedures for noting and reporting bullying behaviour are as follows:

Informal – pre-determination that bullying has occurred

- All staff must keep a written record of any incidents witnessed by them or notified to them. Each teacher will use a Class Behaviour Book to record incidents. Incidents occurring in the school yard will be recorded in the Yard Incident Book. All incidents must be reported to the relevant teacher
- While all reports, including anonymous reports of bullying, must be investigated and dealt with by the relevant teacher, the relevant teacher must keep a written record of the reports, the actions taken and any discussions with those involved regarding same
- The relevant teacher must inform the principal of all incidents being investigated

Formal Stage 1 – determination that bullying has occurred

- If it is established by the relevant teacher that bullying has occurred, the relevant teacher must keep appropriate written records which will assist him/her efforts to resolve the issues and restore, as far as is practicable, the relationships of the parties involved
- All records retained by the relevant teacher will be stored securely in the classroom

Formal Stage 2 – Appendix 3 (from D.E.S. Procedures)

The relevant teacher must use the recording template at Appendix 3 to record the bullying behaviour in the following circumstances:

- a) In cases where he/she considers that the bullying behaviour has not been adequately and appropriately addressed within twenty school days after he/she has determined that bullying behaviour has occurred and
- b) In circumstances where the relevant teacher, in consultation with the principal teacher, decide that the incident is sufficiently serious due to the nature of the bullying behaviour or the impact the behaviour is having on others, the bullying behaviour must be recorded and reported immediately to the Principal or Deputy Principal

When the recording template is used, it must be retained by the relevant teacher and a copy maintained by the principal. The completed templates will be stored securely by both the relevant teacher and the principal. These records will be available to the principal, deputy principal, relevant teacher and any other member of the teaching staff as required, subject to the approval of the principal. The relevant records, those relating to their own child/children, will also be available to parent(s)/guardian(s) of the child/children involved in any recorded incident of bullying behaviour.

These records will be maintained until the pupils reach the age of twenty one years of age after which they will be destroyed.
