Policy Development

- Annual review of Anti-bullying policy
- Annual Review of Code of Behaviour
- The child protection oversight report was presented to the BOM.

School Ethos

- Daily class prayer
- Daily religious instruction
- Weekly assemblies reinstated
- 2nd class children received their sacrament of reconciliation of 24/3/22
- First Holy Communion will take place on March 7th at 11am

School Inspection

Eileen O' Sullivan came to inspect the school on Friday 25/3/22 for an incidental. She assessed teaching and learning as well as Anti-bullying procedures. The school was given an overall grade of 'Good' for the assessment.

Parents' Association

A sincere thank you to our Parents Association for their continued fundraising efforts. Parents association funding will be used for children to take part in 'Hula Headspace'. A six week hula hooping programme aimed to build confidence while learning a new creative skill. Crazy Hair and Hat Day arranged for April 8th

Curricular Development

- Primary language Curriculum Training is taking place at presents. The PDST have assigned a support person to the school who is helping to develop and whole school plan for languages.

Staffing

We had 11 Mainstream class teachers, 4 Special Education Teachers, 9 SNAs with varying hours, 2 part-time secretaries, 4 part-time cleaning operatives and 1 part-time caretaker. The increased hours of the cleaning staff and caretaker will remain until the end of the school year to take into account the extra cleaning work required during the Covid 19 pandemic.

Minor Works/Buildings

- The Board have approved the installation of a fence to secure the Junior and Senior Yard.
- Acoustic Panels fitted in the ASD special class to address issues with echoes.

The school will be closed on 16th of May and 3rd of June.
